- The Prince, Princess and the "P" Pillow menu – COMPLIMENTARY
 - An extensive pillow menu (including buckwheat hull, snore-no-more, 5ft body contour pillow and many others) is available for all our guests at no additional charge.
- On Property Nature tours.
 - Explore our extensive and well fruited property with our Head Gardener and learn all about Jamaican flora and fauna as well as the many different fruit trees around the property – if in season, you might even get to pick a fruit right off the tree and enjoy. The hotel boasts several indigenous fruit trees such as Mango, naseberry, coconut, guava, June plum, passion fruit, sweet sop and sea grapes.
- Jamaican Cigar Rolling –
 - Every Friday during our Martini hour guests get to see first-hand how Cigars are made from the cutting of the leaves to the rolling of the cigar. Try it yourself and roll the size you want and savour the taste of exquisite Jamaican tobacco. Retreat to the cigar room upstairs and order a shot of Pimento dram or rum cream – absolutely divine.
- Afternoon Tea on the Terrace –
 - Remember that age old British tradition – TEA AT FOUR – well, nothing has changed at Royal Plantation since we opened in 1957. We serve tea on the terrace every afternoon to all our guests. This Traditional British legacy offers an array of 'sinful' selections of local and international tea time favourites.

- Lazy Lounge –
 - You can always retreat to our games room for a round of pool, cards and a wide selection of board games. Of help your hand to our give-and-take book library – take a book so long as you leave one behind.
- Manager’s Cocktail Party –
 - Join our management team every Monday from 7-7:30pm and savour home-made rum punch and sangria in our lobby bar.
